Direct Deposit Your Tax Refund

Have your tax deposited directly into your RFCU account and you won't have to worry about someone stealing it from your mailbox. To electronically deposit to any RFCU account, you'll need RFCU's routing number – 231981697. Along with the routing number, you'll need to indicate a depository account number. You may use your member number to deposit into your Savings or Checking Account. Any deposits using the information from your check may be designated only to your Checking Account.

Be sure to enter the routing number and depository account number carefully. No special symbols or spaces should be included. If an information error occurs, your refund check could be returned to the IRS for processing.

If you have questions or need assistance in determining your correct account number, please call RFCU at 800-458-7004 x 32.

Dear Reliance FCU,
I am so happy with your mobile app – SPRIG. It is easy to use and I am able to transfer money from my account with Reliance to my son's account with another credit union. I'm hoping not to have to do that too much longer. Keep up the good work.
– Beth
